Eminent Boctors Praise its Ingredients.

We refer to that boon to weak, nervous, suffering women known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.
Dr. John Fyfe one of the Editorial Staff of THE EGLECTIC MEDICAL REVIEW says of Unicorn root (Helonias Dioica) which is one of the chief ingredients of the "Favorite Prascription":

"A remody which invariably acts as a uterme invitorator in which invariably acts as a uterme invitorator in the productive system."

He continues "in Helonias we have a medical mean which more fully answers the show purposes than any other arms with which I am sequented. In the treatment of giseases peculiar to women it is seldom that a case it seem which does not present some indication for this remedial agent." Dr. Fyre further says: "The following are among the leading indications for Helonias (Unicorn root.) Pain or aching in the back, with leacorrhosal atonic weak) conditions of the reproductive acts at the reproductive organs of women, mental depression and irritability, associated with chronic diseases of the reproductive organs of women, constant sensation of heat in the region of the kidneys; memorrharia (sucpressed or absent monthly periods), arising from or accompanying an abnormal condition of the digestive organs and ansemic (thin blood) habit; dragging sensations in the extreme lower part of the abhorma.

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic crisples, nor turn bony growths back to deah again. That is impossible, but I can now surely kill the pains and pangs of this deplorable disease.

In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstath—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumanic Remedy was made a perfected, dependable preservition. Without that last ingredient I anceesfully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism; but now arises, it uniformly cures all curable cases of this derectofors much dreaded disease. Those smalling granular wastes, found in Rheumatism but not of this remedy and pass away moder the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved these potenoms wastes tredy was from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is goos forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. HELD FOR MURDER.

The coroner's jury in the case of Lillie Davis, who was shot in East Hill Cemetery, in a suburb of Bristol, Wednesday night, and died an hour later, yesterday rendered a verdict holding Ack Hale on the charge of criminally assaulting and murdering her. Hale had been with Miss Davis all day Wednesday, and was with her at the time of the shooting. The evidence before the jury, particularly that given by Dr. W. E. Rogers and Dr. S. N. Peters, who made the medical examination, was such that members of the jury were frank to say that no other verdict could have been Additional evidence tending to prove that Hale deliberately conspired to take the life of Miss Davis, was developed last night by officers at Johnson City, the girl's home. A letter from Hale contains threats against Miss Davis's life, and says "she shall never testify against Roy." Roy Hale, Ack Hale's brother, recently killed the dead girl's brother at the latter's home.

Hale is still being held in the Bristol. Va., jail, but will be taken to Tennessee, it having developed toat the scene of the tragedy was six feet across the State line into Tennessee.
The body or Lillie Davis was taken to Johnson City yesterday for interment. The body was clothed in the gown that had been made for the girl's wedding. Her marriage to Dolas McRoberts would have taken place Easter Sunday. Arrangements for the ceremony were in progress when the girl met her death. In the casket beside the body was placed a photograph of the man to whom she was to have been married.

The Davis family left Johnson City soon after the killing of Irby Davis. Mrs. Davis relates since her daughter's tragic death that she was apprehensive of her safety on account of Ack Hale, who, she says, wrote a threatening note to Lillie recently, warning her that if she married another he would not premit her to live.

Lillie Davis bore an excellent reputation. She left home early in the morning of the shooting for her work in a local printing establishment, but hearing certain machinery in the office was or home for a few minutes. She met Hale and was persuaded to go buggy riding with him. The two drove to the suburbs, where, according to evidence be fore the jury, Hale forced her to drink whisky repeatedly.

At 5 o'clock in the afternoon two other men, strangers to the Davis family, drove to the Davis home and told Mrs. Davis that her daughter had gone to Johnson City to visit her sister, Mrs. Manning. The mother says she did not wonder when Lillie did not return at

The testimony, proceeded to the cemelery overlooking the girl'shome, at nightfall. Rheumatism There the whisky bottle was emptied, and when the girl was picked up the scent of liquor was on her breath.

Hale declared the girl had committed suicide, but before the coroner's jury witnesses refuted his story of what occurred while they were together in the buggy. Witnesses testifled to having seen Hale slap the girl in the face and intimidate her after forcing her to take drink after drink of whisky. Hale is well connected in Bristol and

East Tennessee, where his people are highly respected, some of them being wealthy. From his youth he has had the reputation of being reckless. Lillie Davis was to have been the chief witness against Roy Hale for the murder of her brother.

Suicide of Physician's Wife.

Mrs. Florence Audoun McComas, wile of Dr. E. M. McComaa, of Washington, formerly of Hagerstown, Md. and a consin of Justice Louis E. Mc-Comas, committed suicide yesterday afternoon by shooting herself through the heart. Mrs. McComas, who had been indisposed ever since she had an attack of typhoid fever last summer, attempted to kill herself February 2 last by cutting her throat. Owing to the fact that Dr. Dye had an office in the house, and was able to render prompt and heroic aid when Mrs. McComss cut her throat, her life was saved at that time. In February she was taken to the Emergency Hos-pital, and within a month was discharg-

Yesterday Dr. Dye was again in his office when he heard a pistol shot, and, fearing the worst, hastened up stairs, but found this time that Mrs. McComas had ucceeded in killing herself. She was found lying on the floor dead, while powder burns on her dress indicated that the bullet had pierced her heart.

It appears that about noon Mrs. Mc-Comas left her room, on the second floor at her home, 1406 L. street northwest, and went to the upper floor, where she stood before a table and removed her lace collar. Then she placed the weapon at her breast over her heart and fired. Her death was instantaneous.
